

COMMEMORATING THE

Supreme Court of the United States

No. 1 - - - - - , Brown v. Board of Education

Oliver Brown, Mrs. Elizabeth Eckford, Mrs. Minnie Connelly et al., Appellants,

vs.

Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas County, Kansas, et al.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

This cause came on to be heard on the transcript of the record from the United States

Supreme Court for the District of Columbia, and was argued by counsel.
The cause was taken up of the record. After due consideration hereof, rendered with care and in full accordance with the rules, regulations, and usages of this Court, and the views of the Justices, rendered in their discretion, it is ordered and adjudged by this Court that the cause be dismissed. The cause is remanded to the Court of Appeals, and the same is hereby remanded with costs. The Justices, in their discretion, may take such proceedings and make such order, and decree as consistent with the opinions of this Court as are necessary and proper to admit to public schools on a racially nondiscriminatory basis with all deliberateness open the positions of this case.
